

There's one word you'll hear often when you taste Prince Rupert's cuisine: local. It's all about local foods, fresh ingredients, and unexpected sophistication in Prince Rupert's dining scene. People here are proud to cook up meals from ingredients found in the surrounding landscape. Prince Rupert restaurant owners pride themselves on their attention to detail, fresh local ingredients, and a connection to the landscape and community through food. Prince Rupert has a great selection of cafes and restaurants, so there's something for everyone. From breakfast, to lunch, to dinner, you'll be able to find a local special. If drinks are on the menu, Prince Rupert even has its own craft brewery, decorated in a nautical theme to honour Prince Rupert's long standing connection to the sea.
